Welcome Attendance Karla Humbert, Elizabeth Christian, Andrew Reinitz, Megan Cegla, Jeff Smith, Janny Piammalay, Shanna Dykhoff, Lissa Thomas, Elizabeth Glassmann

Approval of Minutes

- 11/26/2018 Karla moved, Megan 2nd, approved

Share our Success

- Culver's night generated an approximately $1000 donation with another $115 coming from Good Shepard.
- Most classes were able to get to skate once, it's uncommon skating is able to begin prior to Winter Break

Principal Report

School Updates (Scott Eidsness)

- Karla stood in for Scott.
- Scott has been in touch with Ryan Fox but has no update at this point beyond we are still on pace to start in the Spring.
- Holiday party snacks have been a success and the faculty appreciates the PTA donating them.
- Karen Olausen is short on supplies and has already used her PTA budget for the school year. She requested additional funds for specific supplies. Megan Cegla will contact her to get further details on specifically what she needs in order to send out a sign-up genius to see if parent donations will fulfill her needs. It was also suggested that further promotion of Artsonia may result in additional funds for supplies.

Board Reports

Co-President (Katie Christenson/Tirisha Dirks)

Vice President (Andrew Reinitz)

- Spirit wear generated just under $250 and will be sent home/available for pick up on Tuesday 12/18/18

Treasurer (Megan Cegla)

- Reiterated Culver's night success and generosity of Good Shepard's donation.
- Expenditure of $128.90 for Class Parties
- Expenditure of $150.00 for Skate Sharpening

Chairperson Reports

- Further direction was requested and discussed for Pastries for Parent's. Donations for coffee will be sought out.

Other Business

- Carnival/Silent Auction Brainstorming
 - Suggested we reach out to Hilltop to discuss success of token system
 - Suggested we add more diet/less sugary options for pop walk
 - Suggestion to consider adding a snack walk in addition to the pop walk
